ARMR.Network Offers the Best Insurance Choices and Values to the Cleaning and Restoration Industry

Insurance is a significant expense for your cleaning and restoration business. We can help you obtain exceptionally good insurance values from ten different insurance companies.

New Insurance Options

- Coverage is expanding and rates are decreasing, this is a good time to buy insurance.
- Professional Liability Insurance that covers you for the work you do under the IICRC S500 and S520 guidelines is now available. Your current General Liability (GL) and Contractors Pollution Liability (CPL) policies may exclude “professional liability” claims today.
- We now offer a CPL/Professional Liability package policy with a minimum premium of only $2750 for smaller firms! Add mold coverage to the package for another $2500!
- We also have a GL/CPL/Professional insurance package policy starting as low as $2500.
- Free conversions from Claims Made to Occurrence Based CPL coverage are available.
- Premium discounts are available for your RIA and IICRC certifications.

The benefits of working with ARMR.Network include:

- All of these options and more are available from ARMR.Network through your local insurance agent. ARMR.Network is a wholesale insurance broker and that works with your local insurance agent. Certificates of insurance will only be one call away, and you will still receive the local referrals for restoration work from your insurance agency.
- We offer unsurpassed expertise in placing insurance and managing risks in the cleaning and restoration contractor business. ARMR.Network employees are on the drafting committee of S500 and S520. We understand the restoration business and your insurance needs.
- ARMR.Net represents all the major insurance companies offering specialized insurance to restoration contractors. We provide one stop shopping convenience for you.
- Our services cost you little or nothing. We usually significantly improve the quality of the insurance coverage and save our customers thousands of dollars!
- Our policies meet the insurance specifications of all the major networks and franchises.
